

A CONVERSATION ON FREEDOM

FACILITATED BY DR. JERVETTE R. WARD

A conversation to foster a deeper understanding of freedom through historical reflections and connections to present day themes.

- Explore questions of freedom, such as:
 - What is your definition of freedom? How has it changed?
 - Has the concept of freedom altered since 9/11?
- Watch sections from the 1961 “Freedom Riders” protest against segregation in the South.
- Hear three powerful stories on “Freedom” from Sudanese, Syrian, and Bosnian immigrants in our community.

LET'S BEGIN THE CONVERSATION!

THURSDAY, NOV 3, 2016

6:30 PM

UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA ANCHORAGE MULTICULTURAL CENTER

3211 PROVIDENCE DRIVE
(RASMUSON HALL)

Snacks will be served.

A COLLABORATION BETWEEN

ALASKA
HUMANITIES
FORUM

CONFIRM YOUR SPACE TODAY: EMAIL SHIRLEYMAE@GCI.NET